2013 Leadership Team inducted at School Assembly last Friday

The Leadership Team Assembly highlighted the exceptional young people we have at Beckom Public School. Not only did the leadership team present themselves in a positive light to their parents, friends and peers but also Year 4 student Jaymee-Lee Booth was a fantastic Master of Ceremonies. Our five leaders, Jordan Booth, Emma Collis, Oscar Day, Jim Griffin and Ben Grinter are pictured at the assembly with their families.

Clean up Australia Day was also supported at Beckom with Infants cleaning up the school area and the Primary students cleaning up Welman Street. Mrs Weise spoke about recycling and informed students of Coolamon Shire expectations for recycled materials. The students are committed to improving their recycling actions. School Leader Jim Griffin will monitor students’ usage of the compost bin and recycling activities both inside and outside the classroom.

Help needed for Creative Arts Day on Friday 12th April – last day of term

Emma Collis and Jordan Booth have successfully applied for a Youth Week grant. The girls are now in the process of organising a Creative Arts Day for the last day of term and they are on the lookout for talented parents or community members who would like to help out with craft activities. If you are a crafty person and would like to help out, please contact the school.

Trivia Corner

We had a great response to last week’s trivia. Our adult trivia was won by Anne Trevaskis and other correct answers came from Sally Collis, Ann Popple and Maura Muscarella. Stuart Diver was the sole survivor in the Thredbo landslide back in 1997. The children’s trivia was won by Upe Bhangu. Harry Collis, Emma Collis and Jordie Pethers also answered that the three flavours usually found in Neapolitan ice-cream are vanilla, chocolate and strawberry.

Good luck with this week’s questions.

Adult Question:

What role did Hugh Jackman play in Les Miserables?

Children’s Question:

Which part of the body does an Orthodontist work with?

Canteen next Wednesday 13th March

The Bhangu family is organising lunch at the school next Wednesday. Please complete the attached order form and return it with payment early next week.
